

Summer Session in History

July 4 — August 11, 1972

Social and Intellectual History of Canada, 1880 - 1939

Ian MacPherson, Ph.D., University of Winnipeg

Problems in American Labour History

David Montgomery, Ph.D., University of Pittsburgh

History of Europe in the Modern World

Charles L. Bertrand, Ph.D., Sir George Williams University

Studies in Chinese Social History

Charles A. Curwen, D.Phil., London University

The Transformation of England from a Feudal to a Bourgeois Society, 1500 - 1750

Charles H. George, Ph.D., Northern Illinois University

A Social History of France, 1775 - 1850

Jeffrey Kaplow, Ph.D., University of Paris at Vincennes

Former Visiting Professors

Charles Tilly, University of Toronto

Fernand Ouellet, Carleton University

Traian Stoianovich, Rutgers University

Donald G. Gillin, Vassar College

Thomas McCormick, University of Pittsburgh

Peter N. Stearns, Rutgers University

All courses meet two hours, Monday to Friday. They carry regular undergraduate credit (six semester hours); some may count for graduate credit.

For further information contact

Richard J. Diubaldo, Director

History Summer Session

Sir George Williams University

Montreal 107, Quebec